

ATTACHMENT A ICE-BREAKER EXERCISE

HOW MUCH DO YOU KNOW ABOUT LEAD?

Check the correct response:

TRUE	FALSE	QUESTION
		1) Today, lead poisoning is considered a major environmental threat to children.
		2) Exposure to lead when young can cause lower intelligence and problems with hearing, speech and language development, all which may be permanent.
		3) The only cause of childhood lead poisoning is eating lead-based paint chips.
		4) Lead paint is no longer made or sold in this country.
		5) Children with lead poisoning will usually appear or act sick.
		6) Elevated blood lead levels in pregnant women can affect the developing fetus.
		7) Children are less likely to become lead poisoned during the summer months than any other time of the year.
		8) Providing a well-balanced diet will help protect a child against lead poisoning.
		9) Childhood lead poisoning occurs only in poor urban neighborhoods.
		10) Remodeling and renovation involving lead-based paint in older homes is a very complicated, expensive procedure.
		11) Remodeling and renovation in older homes may cause workers to be exposed to lead.
		12) Remodeling and renovation in older homes may cause workers to expose their clients to lead.
		13) Remodeling and renovation in older homes may cause workers to expose their families to lead.
		14) "Final broom finished or shop vac clean-up" sufficiently protects the client after the job is completed.
		15) Lead poisoning to children and workers can be prevented.